- 1 I know that my Redeemer lives; What joy the blest assurance gives!
He lives, he lives, who once was dead; He lives, to help in time of need.
- 2 He lives, to bless me with his love; He lives, to plead for me above;
He lives, my hungry soul to feed; He lives, to help in time of need.
- 3 He lives, and grants me daily breath; He lives, and I shall conquer death;
He lives, my mansion to prepare; He lives, to bring me safely there.
- 4 He lives, all glory to his Name; He lives, my Savior still the same;
What joy the blest assurance gives; I know that my Redeemer lives!

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Offertory Hymn

- 1 I call you to my Father's house, A lovely dwelling place.
He comes to meet you on the road, Arms ready to embrace.
- 2 Lay down your sorrow, calm your fear; The Father bids you come.
With open arms he welcomes you... To your eternal home.
- 3 Although the way be hard and long... Into the promised land,
Be not afraid to walk with me: I hold you by the hand.
- 4 I have prepared a wedding feast... Of finest food and wine.
O join us at this banquet where... My friends, the saints now dine.
5. I call you to my Father's house, A lovely dwelling place.
Be not afraid to travel there... And meet God face to face.

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

Silent Prayer: All pray in silence for the repose of the deceased soul

Song of Farewell and Prayer of Commendation:

- 1 Saints of God, come to his aid! Come to meet him, angels of the Lord!
Receive his soul and present him to God, present his soul to God most high.
- 2 May Christ who called you, take you home;
May angels lead you to our parents side!
Receive his soul and present him to God, present his soul to God most high.
- 3 Give eternal rest, O Lord; And may your light shine on him, for ever!
Receive his soul and present him to God, present his soul to God most high.

PROCESSION TO THE PLACE OF REST

May choirs of angels lead you into paradise, and may the martyrs come to welcome you, to bring you home into the Holy City, so you may dwell in new Jerusalem.

May holy angels be there at your welcoming, with all the Saints who go before you there, that you may know the peace and joy of paradise; that you may enter into everlasting rest.

PRAYERS AT THE GRAVE

*Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon him.
May he rest in peace. Amen.*

May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

HYMN AT THE GRAVE

- 1 Amazing Grace! How sweet the sound, That saved and set me free!
I once was lost, but now am found, Was blind, but now I see!
- 2 Through many dangers, toils, and snares, I have already come.
'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far, And grace will lead me home.
- 3 When we've been there ten thousand years, Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise... Than when we'd first begun.

At the evening of life, we shall be judged on our love. Saint John of the Cross

Why do we offer the sacrifice of the Mass (Eucharist) for our beloved dead?

This teaching is based on the practice of prayer for the dead, already mentioned in Sacred Scripture: "Therefore [Judas the ruler of Israel] made atonement for the dead, that they might be delivered from their sin." (II Maccabees 12:46) From the beginning the Church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God. The Church also commends almsgiving, indulgences, and works of penance undertaken on behalf of the dead; Let us help and commemorate them. If Job's sons were purified by their father's sacrifice, why would we doubt that our offerings for the dead bring them some consolation? Let us not hesitate to help those who have died and to offer our prayers for them. (St. John Chrysostom, 347-407 A.D.) PARAGRAPH #1032 OF THE CATECHISM
